

HISTORY

Teaching of History
M.A.T. & M.Ed.

PLEASE DISCUSS ALL COURSEWORK WITH YOUR ADVISOR
PRIOR TO REGISTERING FOR CLASSES

>Apply for Candidacy during the first semester of course work in the Council on Teacher Education EPASW 3015.

Note: Programs with certification lead to an Illinois teaching certificate for grades 6-12 in Social Science and History. An endorsement for teaching in middle-school (grades 6-8) requires two additional courses: CIE 484 and EPSY 446.

* Of the 32 hours in history, students need a minimum of 6 hours in African, Asian, Latin American, and Middle Eastern history, 6 hours of European history and 12 hours of U.S. history.

**Students need to apply for student teaching with their academic advisor one yr. in advance of the semester they expect to teach. Applications are available in the Council on Teacher Education, 3015 EPASW. Student Teaching is full time, off campus, & listed as two courses: Hist. 475 and 476; students must register for both. Hist. 475 & 476 must be passed with an "A" or "B" for certification credit.

	Term	Hours
M.A.T with Certification (54 Semester hours minimum)
1) History: (min. of 32 hours in history required, including 16 graduate hours in history)*
a. Major Field: (When there is only one history colloquia offered in the major field, students will be required to take an elective in their major field)
Colloquia: _____	_____	( 4 )
_____	_____	( 4 )
Major Fields: US = Hist 551 (8 hrs.), Europe = Hist 511 (4hrs) & Elective
Other Major Fields: See Graduate Handbook for History
b. Teaching of History and the Social Sciences:	_____	( 4 )
Hist 500: Colloquium on the Teaching of History	_____	( 4 )
Hist 420: Teaching the Social Sciences (requires 9 hrs in Social Sciences)
c. Readings courses:(students must take two readings courses not in their major field.) 1
World, US or European 500 level Readings Course	_____	( 4 )
World, US or European 500 level Readings Course	_____	( 4 )
2) Education Minor (18 semester hours and 100 clock hours of clinical experience)
a. ED 402 or 403 _____	_____	( 3 )
b. ED 421 or 445 _____	_____	( 3 )
c. CIE 504 _____	_____	( 4 )
d. ED 432 (70 hours of clinical experience)	_____	( 5 )
e. SPED 410 (30 hours of clinical experience)	_____	( 3 )
3) History 475 & 476 Educational Practice with Seminar I & II (Student Teaching)	_____	(12)
M.A.T. without Certification
1) History: (32 sem. hours minimum)*
a. Major Field:(When there is only one history colloquia offered in the major field, students will be required to take an elective in their major field)
Colloquia: _____	_____	( 4 )
_____	_____	( 4 )
Major Fields: US = Hist 551 (8hrs), Europe = Hist 551(4hrs) & Elective
Other Major Fields: See Graduate Handbook for History
b. Teaching of History and the Social Sciences:
Hist 500: Colloquium on Teaching History	_____	( 4 )
Hist 420: Teaching the Social Sciences (requires 9 hours in Social Sciences)	_____	( 4 )
c. Readings courses:(students must take two readings courses not in their major field.) 1
World, US or European 500 level Readings Course	_____	( 4 )
World, US or European 500 level Readings Course	_____	( 4 )
d. Minor Field: _____ (8 sem. hours required)	_____	( 4 )
_____	_____	( 4 )
_____	_____	( 4 )
M.Ed with Certification
1) History (min. of 32 hrs in history required, including 16 graduate hours in history)*	_____	( 3 )
a. Teaching of History and the Social Sciences: (8 sem. hours minimum)
Hist 500: Colloquium on the Teaching of History	_____	( 4 )
Hist 420: Teaching the Social Sciences (requires 9 hours of Social Sciences)	_____	( 4 )
b. Readings courses: (8 semester hours minimum)2
World, US or European 500 level Readings Course	_____	( 4 )
World, US or European 500 level Readings Course	_____	( 4 )
2) Education Courses (see College of Education advisor)
3) History 475 & 476 Educational Practice with Seminar I & II (Student Teaching)	_____	(12)

[1] Students will need to take readings courses in the two fields not chosen for the major. For example, a student who has chosen an American history major will need to take one course in World history and one course in European history at the graduate level. These courses include Hist. 551, 511, 561 and others. Consult the Graduate College catalog for additional offerings.
 [2] Students need to take readings courses in two fields: U.S., World or European history. Courses include HIST 551, 511, 561, etc.

[1] Students will need to take readings courses in the two fields not chosen for the major. For example, a student who has chosen an American history major will need to take one course in World history and one course in European history at the graduate level. These courses include Hist. 551, 511, 561 and others. Consult the Graduate College catalog for additional offerings.

[2] Students need to take readings courses in two fields: U.S., World or European history. Courses include HIST 551, 511, 561, etc.