

Teaching of History M.A.T.

Please discuss all coursework with Robert Johnston (johnstol@uic.edu) prior to registering for classes

Apply for Candidacy during the first semester of course work in the Council on Teacher Education ETMSW3015.

Note: Programs with licensure lead to an Illinois teaching license for grades 6-12 in Social Science and History. An endorsement for teaching in middle-school (grades 6-8) requires two additional courses: CI 484 and EPSY 446.

*Of the 32 hours in history, students need a minimum of 6 hours in African, Asian, Latin American, and Middle Eastern history, 6 hours of European history and 12 hours of U.S. history.

**Students need to apply for student teaching with their academic advisor one yr. in advance of the semester they expect to teach. Applications are available in the Council on Teacher Education, 3015 ETMSW. Student Teaching is full time, off campus, & listed as two courses: Hist. 475 and 476; students must register for both. Hist. 475 & 476 must be passed with an "A" or "B" for licensure credit.

[1] Students will need to take readings courses in the two fields not chosen for the major. For example, a student who has chosen an American history major will need to take one course in World history and one course in European history at the graduate level. These courses include HIST 503, 511, 551, 561, 593, & 594. Consult the Graduate College catalog for additional offerings.
 [2] Students need to take readings courses in three fields: U.S., World and European history. Courses include HIST 503, 511, 551, 561, 593, & 594.
